JANUARY 2020

FROM THE EAST

WM Norman C. Parker

This year is drawing to an end as we prepare to experience an inspiring new year ahead of us for our Lodge.

First and foremost, thank you Worshipful Brethren Gerald Winstanley, David A. Haslim, and Daniel F. Macaraeg for being the Installing Officer, Master of Ceremonies, and Installing Chaplain, respectively, during our 97th Installation of Officers held on Saturday, December 13th, 2019.

And “Congratulations!” are in order to all our recently-installed officers.

Thank you also to Worshipful JR for a successful 2019 term! I want to take this opportunity to echo some of the achievements throughout the year: the Lodge’s first Easter family celebration with refreshments, various crafts, 50/50 raffle prize drawing, egg-hunting, and the visit of the Easter Bunny; our continued recognition of “Teacher of the Year;” our continued outreach program supporting the Sequoia Elementary School in Clairemont with their Spelling Bee competition as well as holiday food donations and family gifts; the effort to acquire a new carpet for our Lodge; and the continued care and support of our Ladies with their outstanding table centerpieces every month, as well as their noteworthy sustainment of camaraderie.

These successful events came through only because of each one’s contribution of time and dedication while treating everyone with respect, dignity, and trust that each one deserves. This is a rare and precious kind of culture that I am proud to be a part of, the kind that we all should be proud of.

While it is my privilege to “lead” the Lodge as this ensuing year’s Worshipful Master, my success and that of our Lodge can only be achieved with all of us working closely together as we’ve always done. Some of our Brethren may opt to take a break in representing multiple committees after so many years and that is understandable and quite alright; and thank you for your dedication. It also offers an opportunity for other Brethren to step up to the plate and take on the responsibility while learning in the process.

We have so much to look forward to in 2020.

- Let us all be instrumental in setting the stage with a shared vision for the continued growth and accomplishments of our Brethren, our Lodge, and our community.
- Let us continue to embrace the mentoring of our Past Masters, for their wisdom is priceless.
- Let us welcome each opportunity to share our ideas and learn from each other, seeking ways on where and how we can improve our Lodge, if and when needed.
- Let us remain as one solid band of Brethren and Ladies, a family with a foundation of strengthened relationships to help us rise to any challenge that comes our way and to forge ahead – IN UNITY – with a clear conviction to meet our goals.

Here’s wishing you and your families a wonderful, joyful, and safe holiday!

Respectfully yours,
N. Chris Parker
Master
