June 2023

From the East

Brethren and Ladies of S. W. Hackett Lodge,

June is looking to be a very busy and exciting month indeed!

At the top of the list is our centennial celebrating 100 years of masonry. Our charter was granted on October 11, 1923. The event is scheduled for Saturday, June 17th at the Scottish Rite Center. Please refer to the invitation notice in this trestle board for details and the agenda information. Especially that we need your RSVP notification by Wednesday, June 7th to give a head count to our caterer. Our Grand Master, Most Worshipful Randall L. Brill and his wife Susan, will be our honored guests.

Also take note that we will be recognizing our Teacher of the Year from Sequoia Elementary School at the stated dinner. Please take time to come out and thank the newest member and thank her for the years of dedicated service to our children in the public schools.

Last month I requested a volunteer to establish a presence for S. W. Hackett lodge on social media. It turns out that we already have a Facebook page and the content is current. It is <https://www.facebook.com/pages/SW-Hackett-Lodge-No-574-of-San-Diego-California/198140260201298>. And there are postings from the recent cornerstone ceremony for the new Scottish Rite building.

Hoping to see you in lodge as often as possible, I am...

The History Of Flag Day

The Fourth of July was traditionally celebrated as America's birthday, but the idea of an annual day specifically celebrating the Flag is believed to have first originated in 1885. BJ Cigrand, a schoolteacher, arranged for the pupils in the Fredonia, Wisconsin Public School, District 6, to observe June 14 (the 108th anniversary of the official adoption of The Stars and Stripes) as 'Flag Birthday'. In numerous magazines and newspaper articles and public addresses over the following years, Cigrand continued to enthusiastically advocate the observance of June 14 as 'Flag Birthday', or 'Flag Day'.

On June 14, 1889, George Balch, a kindergarten teacher in New York City, planned appropriate ceremonies for the children of his school, and his idea of observing Flag Day was later adopted by the State Board of Education of New York. On June 14, 1891, the Betsy Ross House in Philadelphia held a Flag Day celebration, and on June 14 of the following year, the New York Society of the Sons of the Revolution, celebrated Flag Day.

Following the suggestion of Colonel J Granville Leach (at the time historian of the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the Revolution), the Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames of America on April 25, 1893 adopted a resolution requesting the mayor of Philadelphia and all others in authority and all private citizens to display the Flag on June 14th. Leach went on to recommend that thereafter the day be known as 'Flag Day', and on that day, school children be assembled for appropriate exercises, with each child being given a small Flag.

Two weeks later on May 8th, the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution unanimously endorsed the action of the Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames. As a result of the resolution, Dr. Edward Brooks, then Superintendent of Public Schools of Philadelphia, directed that Flag Day exercises be held on June 14, 1893 in Independence Square. School children were assembled, each carrying a small Flag, and patriotic songs were sung and addresses delivered.

In 1894, the governor of New York directed that on June 14 the Flag be displayed on all public buildings. With BJ Cigrand and Leroy Van Horn as the moving spirits, the Illinois organization, known as the American Flag Day Association, was organized for the purpose of promoting the holding of Flag Day exercises. On June 14th, 1894, under the auspices of this association, the first general public school children's celebration of Flag Day in Chicago was held in Douglas, Garfield, Humboldt, Lincoln, and Washington Parks, with more than 300,000 children participating.

Adults, too, participated in patriotic programs. Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, delivered a 1914 Flag Day address in which he repeated words he said the flag had spoken to him that morning: "I am what you make me; nothing more. I swing before your eyes as a bright gleam of color, a symbol of yourself."

Inspired by these three decades of state and local celebrations, Flag Day - the anniversary of the Flag Resolution of 1777 - was officially established by the Proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson on May 30th, 1916. While Flag Day was celebrated in various communities for years after Wilson's proclamation, it was not until August 3rd, 1949, that President Truman signed an Act of Congress designating June 14th of each year as National Flag Day.

LADIES CORNER

Happy Summer Solstice to All of Our Lodge Ladies (June 21 - The longest day of the year)!

As you can imagine, it has been a whirlwind of activity preparing for our two big events this month.

First, we will be recognizing our Teacher of the Year from Sequoia Elementary School at our Stated Dinner on Tuesday, June 6th. Wor. Jim Achenbach has once again done a fantastic job coordinating with the principal and staff in making this selection. Please come out to join us in our salute to the hard workers in public education.

Second, is our Centennial Celebration on Saturday, June 17th. We have been anticipation this for many months and I know it will be a very special evening for all of us. I might need some assistance with the table decorations, so if you will be attending and are able to come down a little early, your assistance will be greatly appreciated.

Hoping to see you at one or both of these events this month!

All My Best Regards,
Marty Haslim
