This day that was...

Editorial...

It is unforgettable and nostalgic moments when I travel back 10 years in my masonic memory lane. I am recollecting the day I first occupied the Eastern Chair as the worshipful master of this illustrious Lodge.

2007 is one of the meaningful year in my life. When I have taken up the Mastership of Lodge Accountants No.194, I was really not sure whether I could properly/ reasonably balance among my profession as a director of one of the big 4 accounting firms, my passion to be an expert on company law/ financial reporting, my commitments towards family and the Mastership of the Lodge.

Knowing my limitations I have picked up only two agenda (a) to continue to excel in ritual working and charity activities and (b) to create a more closer family bondage. 139 hearts and 278 hands united together in helping me in every moment of my Mastership.

This special bulletin is to cherish those great moments in my life, created by the great brethren of Lodge Accountants.

Yours fraternally,
Chinnsamy Ganesan

Day began with charity

the then R.W.the Regional Grand Master

Present Status

This is now a permanent project of Lodge Accountants and for the eleventh year in succession, the WMs and brethren personally visit and gifted new clothes to the inmates on every Pongal day

Gosha Mahal Baradari Masonic Temple

The Gosha Mahal Baradari Masonic Temple was built in 1682 by Sultan Abul Hassan Tanasha. The Nizam of Hyderabad, a Freemason himself, donated the Gosha Mahal Baradari Masonic Temple, which was then a military barrack, to permanently house the freemasonry movement in the early 1900s. The building was dedicated formally to Masonic activities in February 1933.

The 324-year-old Gosha Mahal Baradari is considered by the Freemasons as a precious monument with its massive, majestic balustrades, walls adorned by portraits and photographs of eminent freemasons in their regalia and an equally lavish banquet hall, all being awe-inspiring sights. Now the oldest Masonic temple in the country, the Baradari has nine Masonic lodges and chapters meeting inside its imposing interiors.

Lodge Accountants No.194 had its outstation meeting at this historic masonic temple and Bro.Sridharan Balaji was passed to the Second Degree.

Candid camera..?

Bro.Radha seems to be clean bowled at the men's contest

We heard them...

When the escorts for the shopping group warned the ladies to beware of duplicates and cheats W.Bro. T.N.Manoharan cheered them "not to worry. You may get cheated only according to your affordability". The report of the affected brethren is yet to be received till the issue went to press. Some onlookers said that they saw calculators and laptops are busy working at the rooms to assess the financial impact thereon.

The folk dance at the Children's Cultural was delayed twice. An enquiry conducted by the organizing committee submitted its report "Veshti Avundhu Pochuppa"

W. Bro. SP.ST.Palaniappan commented "Bro.R.M.Vairavan seemed to have searched for Lord Shiva's adi and mudi" on seeing the latter's great effort in preventing a four by stopping the cricket ball but was running after a volley ball to throw it to the wicket keeper.

"In the history of cricket for the first time a bowler could pitch each delivery more than twice, which made the batsmen to wait, watch and play. In the process some batsmen slept between the balls"
W.Bro. T.N.Manoharan

When the standby umpire Bro.S.R.Raman signaled end of an over, the bowler was totally taken aback as only 2 balls had been bowled. When protested, the umpire pointed out that the 4 wides were also bowled and that he knew very clearly that an over consists of only six deliveries.

When King Solomon ordered for "a jippa" all eyes turned towards the only jippa available at the hall, W.Bro.T.N.Manoharan's. Before he was divested of the same, Bro.Palaniappan entered from nowhere and saved TNM by offering his own jippa to King Solomon

They conquered us (Children special entertainment)

Fun-filled moments

Excerpts from the appreciation note given by Mrs.Mythili Raman to Ms.Jayanthi who taught the ladies Tanjore Painting, Jewel designing etc தஞ்சாவூர் ஓவியம் சொல்லிக் கொடுக்கிறார்களாய் யாருக்கு வேண்டும்.. அஞ்சு நிமிஷம் கம்மா பார்த்து விட்டு சுகமா உறங்கச் செல்லலாம் என்ற அத்தனை கணிப்பும் கண்பொழுதில் தவறாய் போனது. எங்கள் குருவின் கைவண்ணம் கண்ட போது!

மூன்று மணிநேரம் எங்ககளைக் கட்டி போட்ட அவை கைகளா ? அல்ல.. தூரிகை விரல்கள்!

எங்களுக்குள்ளே இத்தனை ஒளிந்திருக்கிறதா...? தோண்டி எடுத்த குருவுக்கு கோடி வணக்கங்கள்! வாழ்க நீ பல்லாண்டு!
